MARLBOROUGH HIGH

MOVJNG JNTO TOMORROW

MARLBOROUGH HIGH SCHOOL

BOLTON STREET MARLBOROUGH, MA 01752

Shining on today and moving into tomorrow

Like the rising and setting of the sun, we too must go through a cycle of beginnings and endings. The eight graders at Marlborough High School are just beginning this cycle, whereas the seniors are near the end. The most important thing to remember is that as we move through the cycles of our lives, we can grow, learn, and shine. We can never forget the brightest days of our past. Who can forget the coffee runs to Dunkin' Donuts, hangin' the rail, that special teacher that really made you learn, or even those late nights trying to finish papers that are due at 7:20 the next morning? Each of these daily happenings can take place within the course of a day. In closing, all of these aspects of life at Marlborough High School can be brought together to complete the cycle.

Dear Class of 1997,

It is with tremendous pride and pleasure that I present the City of Marlborough, and the School Committee, as we send you out into the world of further education, and the world of work, and adult responsibilities.

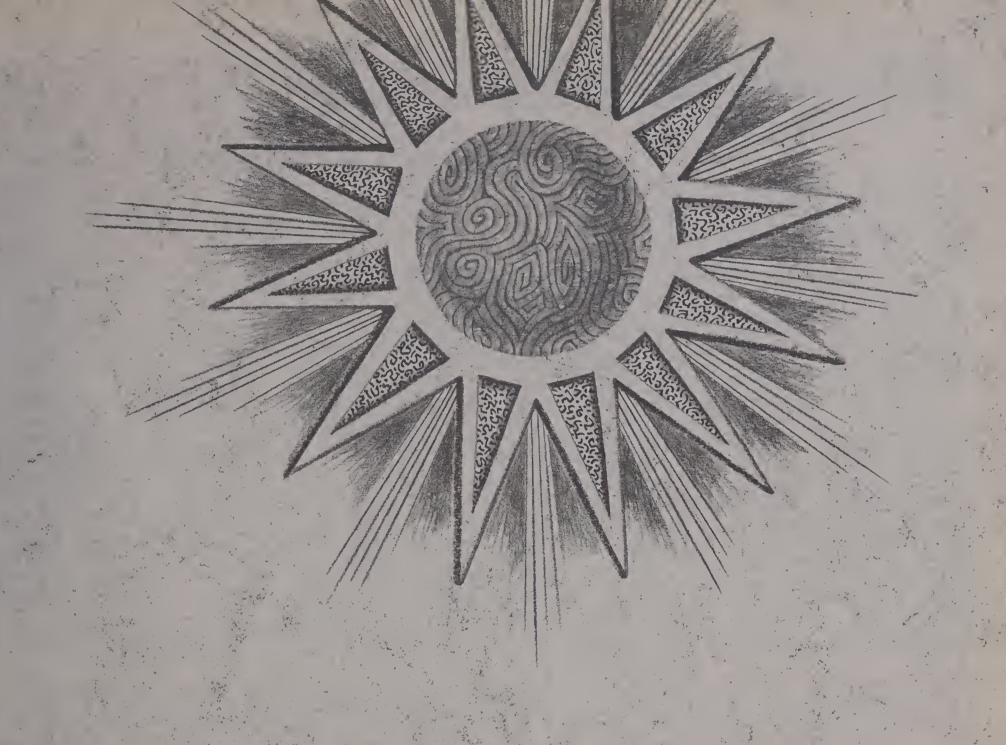

I have seen you grow into the leaders and role models of our school. You have done this at a time of enormous changes in the school itself, in the city school system, and in education throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusets. Throughout these years of change, you have asked good questions, and you have pushed for things that are important to you. By doing this, you helped make Marlborough High School a better place for all students.

I encourage you all to now go out and make the colleges you attend better places. Also go out and make your communities, and your work world better places. As Marlborough High School graduates, you can make a difference wherever you go. I look forward to hearing, in the future, about what you have done to make a better world.

Enjoy life. Think positive. Keep learning!

Best Wishes,

Walter McClennen Principal

The crowd sat in awed silence as they waited for the most exciting moment of the night: the announcement of the selection of the King and Queen of the Prom.

The Court members had already been selected. Tom Allen escorted Danielle Gregoire. Eric Maiuri escorted Kate Charron. Brian Williams escorted Katie Kivlighan. And Adam Cobb escorted Isis Dallis. With the Court members announced, there was only one thing left.

The faculty and administrators had a difficult time choosing to whom the honors should go, but at last they decided on Adam Cutone and Lynn Carroll.

SENIOR SEMIFORMAL '97

becoming memories.

A new tradition has dawned on Marlborough High School - the Senior Semi-Formal. Last year's class held this event for the first time, but it was the class of 1997 which showed the school that the semi-formal should continue for years to come. Class unity was evident as students gathered together to dance, greet friends, and smile for the camera. The senior class only invites the next class to have an even greater time next year. Keep the tradition alive!!!

Tracy McGrath and Brian Williams are living it up at the Senior Semi.

April Bernal demonstrates her finesse on the dance floor.

Ryan Ankstitus and Lindsey Lucas swoon in each others arms.

After a year off, our day of fun in the sun returns

Livin' it up at Field Day: Shannon O'Reilly, Dave Deal, and Andrea Nardello smile for the camera during the festivities of Field Day.

"I made this!" Sapna Patel and Mark Stetson display the fruits of their labor at the tie-dye table.

"What the heck was that?" Ricky Carlson seems bewildered by all the fast-paced action of the Field Day activities.

While an ecstatic throng watches on, Who's Ya Daddy? serves up another crowd-pleaser in front of the main entrance on Field Day.

"Let them eat cake": Emily Welton and Katie Hartin had a favorite Field Day event-the cookout.

Mr. Lepore shows off his tennis skills, returning the ball with blinding speed.

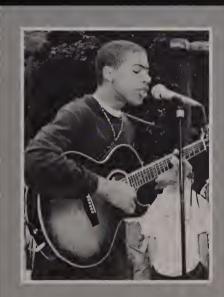

Faculty members hone their culinary capabilities and cook up a meal even their mothers would be proud of.

"What are you looking at?" remarks Fred Aguilar as he gets himself psyched up for the pie-eating contest.

"What would you say?" asks Joel St. Julien as he plays with the legendary band Who's ya Daddy? to an excited crowd.

A sartorially challenged Adam
Beamer cries to all of his adoring fans,
"W'zup baby?!" as the crowd cheers for Who's Ya Daddy?

"I told you- we already played that song," says Chris Nardello, master of his domain behind his drum set.

CHER-LEADING

hen one hears the word cheerleading, traditional stereopes come to mind. But this is at what cheerleading is all out. Cheerleading takes a lot hard work and dedication ard work and dedication efinitely describe this years that the cheerleaders kicked is the year early, with an innestraining camp experience Boston University. At camp.

they learned the techniques and teamwork that led to such a successful season. The cheerleading team played a pivotal role in the wildly successful All-Sports rally. Teaching the captains of sports teams and members of the faculty how to do cheers was not easy. This is only one example of how much school spirit the cheerleaders promote.

We're very thankful for you, our wonderful daughter, sister and friend. Your keen mind, tender heart and sense of humor are gifts that have stretched both you and us. By God's grace they will continue to serve you well in seeing

You may give them your love
but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts
You may house their bodies
but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow,
which you cannot visit,
not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them,
but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward
nor tarries with yesterday...

Gibran

Our Dearest Katie,

One Christmas Eve, not so long ago, you were born with a special sparkle in your eye. That sparkle told us that whatever you set your mind to do, you would be successful. Keep that Sparkle alive, and always remember how proud we are of you and how much we love you!

Love, Mom and Dad Elizabeth and Patrice
